

Instructions

Please submit this application no later than Wednesday, January 15th, 2025.

Applicants will be notified of decisions in March, 2025. More information about the Biosocial Training program and its requirements is available here. Please email Margaret Swingler (margaret.swingler@unc.edu) with any questions.

Please make sure to sign and submit your application when it is ready for final review.

There are two parts to this application: A Qualtrics survey and a Word form. You will enter details about your proposed preceptors, academic milestones, financial support, and previous coursework in this survey. You will answer questions about your interdisciplinary research and training experience and your goals as a Biosocial Trainee in the supplemental Word form attached here. After you have downloaded and completed the Word form, you will upload it to the Qualtrics survey in the uploads section.
