Instructions

Please submit this application no later than Wednesday, January 15th, 2025.

General instructions:

1) Your application will be not be reviewed if you have not been formally admitted to UNC by the time our review committee meets in March 2025.

2) All applicants must talk to and list a proposed faculty preceptor who is a CPC Fellow in the relevant section below. Please only list preceptors with whom you have communicated and who have agreed to act as a preceptor for you if you are accepted into the program. You can find a list of CPC faculty fellows here.

3) The Population Science Training Program is a residential program intended for students who are local to UNC and on campus on a regular basis.

4) Applicants new to UNC-CH will be notified before March 31, 2025.

Please make sure to sign and submit your application when it is ready for final review.

There are two parts to this application: A Qualtrics survey and a Word form. You will enter details about your proposed preceptor, academic milestones, financial support, and previous coursework in this survey. You will answer questions about your proposed research practicum and population-relevant research experience in the supplemental Word form attached here. After you have downloaded and completed the Word form, you will upload it to the Qualtrics survey in the uploads section.
